Registration Is Open for Fourth Annual Criminal Tax Day, Friday, May 15, 2020

NEW HAVEN, CT – Green & Sklarz, LLC announces the Fourth Annual Criminal Tax Day, a one-day conference for tax professionals who want to learn how to protect their clients from criminal tax charges. It will be held in person with an 8:30 start time at Quinnipiac University School of Law, 370 Bassett Rd, North Haven, CT 06473. Virtual viewing via webcast is also available. CPAs, EAs, and attorneys can earn 8 continuing education credits for attending.

Sessions include Avoiding a Criminal Referral for Employment Tax Violations, Calculating Tax Loss, The Client’s State of Mind: Defenses to Willfulness in Tax Crimes, and others.

Sponsors include Green & Sklarz, LLC, Quinnipiac University School of Law, Agostino & Associates, Caplin & Drysdale, Kostelanetz & Fink LLP, Meadows Collier, Connecticut Society of EAs, and Green & Sklarz Foundation Trust. All proceeds go to local charitable causes.

Organizer Eric Green adds, “Criminal Tax Day is a wonderful chance to join nationally recognized experts and government officials to learn everything you ever wanted to know about criminal tax and how to protect your clients from themselves.”

The theme for 2020 is “The Tax Man Cometh.” In-person seating is limited to 150. Early bird rate expires April 30, 2020. To find out more about Criminal Tax Day, visit the web page at <https://gs-lawfirm.com/program-criminal-tax-day-2020/>
