Tax Rep Network Adds New Marketing Coach; Expands Membership Levels

NEW HAVEN, CT – Tax Rep LLC, the company behind Tax Rep Network, announces the addition of Sandi Leyva, CPA as Marketing Coach to its membership program for tax professionals who want to build a strong tax resolution practice. Sandi brings a strong digital marketing training background and a deep knowledge of the tax and accounting professions to the program.

“I love how Tax Rep Network raises the bar in skills development and client strategies for tax representation professionals, and I look forward to expanding the marketing curriculum in the program,” says Sandi Leyva.

Sandi is joined by the four additional coaches in Tax Rep Network: founder and tax representation attorney Eric Green, bankruptcy expert attorney Jeff Sklarz, Enrolled Agent Amanda Evans, and internet marketer Klemens Raab. Read more: <https://taxrepllc.com/about/>

The Tax Rep Network program has also added two new levels of membership in addition to its core level, now called Gold. The Silver level is designed for tax professionals just getting started with tax resolution and still working on their EA or CPA. The Platinum level is for active tax resolution professionals with multiple clients and cases who want deeper technical guidance.
