Dear Mr. Taxpayer,

We have investigated your offer dated 11/28/2016 in the amount of $250.00.

We are rejecting the offer for the following reason(s):

The amount offered is less than your reasonable collection potential. Copies of worksheets showing our calculations are enclosed for your review.

Based on the financial information you submitted, we have determined you can pay the amount due in full.

We have considered the special circumstances you raised but they did not warrant a decision to accept your offer.

If you disagree with our findings, please provide any additional information in writing to support your position within 30 days of the date of this letter. If you also want your case considered by the Office of Appeals, you must include a written statement in your response asking that your case be sent to the Office of Appeals after our reconsideration. If you do not send this written statement within 30 days of the date of this letter you will not receive consideration by the Office of Appeals.

Include any additional information that you want Appeals to consider. You may still appeal without additional information, but including it will help us to process your request promptly. You should send a letter requesting Appeals consideration. Please complete the enclosed Form 13711 or include the following information in your written protest:

1. Your name, address, social security number (if applicable, Employer identification number) and daytime telephone number;
2. A statement that you want to appeal the IRS findings to the Appeals Office;

"Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have examined the facts stated in this protest, including any accompanying documents, and to the best of my knowledge and belief, they are true, correct, and complete."

If your representative prepares and signs the protest for you, he or she may substitute a declaration stating either:

or

2. Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have submitted the protest and accompanying documents, but have no personal knowledge concerning the facts stated in the protest and the accompanying documents.

You may represent yourself at your appeals conference or you may be represented by an attorney, certified public accountant, or an individual enrolled to practice before the IRS. Your representative must be qualified to practice before the IRS. If your representative appears without you, he or she must file a power of attorney or tax information authorization with the IRS before receiving or inspecting confidential information. You may use Form 2848, Power of Attorney and Declaration of Representative, or any other properly written power of attorney or authorization for this purpose. Copies of these forms are available from any IRS office, or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676). You may also bring another person(s) with you to support your position.

Any payments received with your offer or after your offer is closed, will be applied to your liability unless specified elsewhere in this letter.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown in the upper right hand corner of this letter.
