

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRESS CONTACT ONLY: Eric Green, 203-530-7298, egreen@gs-lawfirm.com

Tax Rep, LLC Unveils the New Certified Tax Representation Consultant Designation

NEW HAVEN, CT –Tax Rep, LLC announces its new certification program for tax resolution professionals, Certified Tax Representation Consultant (CTRC). With this program, tax professionals can become a CTRC and join an elite group of tax resolution experts.

In order to qualify for the Certified Tax Representation Consultant designation, applicants must be an attorney, CPA, or EA in good standing with the state bar, state board, or the IRS; successfully complete all five sections of the Certified Tax Representation Consultant Course; and complete and submit an application. The CTRC study program consists of five four-hour courses that each include a 20-question exam.

The CTRC is one way for individuals to earn a distinction over their peers and competition as someone who has studied best practices in five resolution topics, including offers-in-compromise, IRS collections, payroll tax issues, innocent spouse cases, and IRS audits.

Tax Rep, LLC is a member organization designed to help tax professionals build their tax resolution practices. For more information, go here: <https://taxrepllc.com>. For more about the CTRC program, visit <https://taxrepllc.com/become-a-certified-tax-representation-consultant/>.