

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRESS CONTACT ONLY: Eric Green, 203-530-7298, egreen@gs-lawfirm.com

Fourth Annual Criminal Tax Day 2021

NEW HAVEN, CT – The Fourth Annual Criminal Tax Day 2021 is a one-day conference hosted by Green & Sklarz Foundation Trust that provides educational CPE/CLE sessions for CPAs, EAs, and attorneys on the hottest criminal tax topics. Speakers include a number of key IRS leaders as well as nationally recognized criminal tax attorneys. The conference will be broadcast live on June 4, 2021. All proceeds go to charity.

Conference sessions follow a panel discussion format, and session titles include the IRS's Use of Artificial Intelligence in Criminal Tax Cases, PPP Fraud, NonFilers, Criminal Investigations: Inside the Defense Room and Meeting with the Government, Parallel Civil and Criminal Investigations, and What's New in Criminal Tax. Full session descriptions are here: <https://irsrepconference.com/criminal-tax-day-sessions/>

Damon Rowe, Executive Director of Fraud Enforcement; Hank Kea, Director, Field Collection Operations; and Carolyn Schenk, National Fraud Counsel and Assistant Division Counsel (International); all of the IRS Small Business/Self-Employed (SB/SE) Division, will be participating as speakers and panelists in the conference. In addition, two IRS Special Agents will represent IRS Criminal Investigation. Additional speakers include numerous nationally-recognized criminal tax attorneys as well as an Asst. United States Attorney, District of hello@taxrepllc.com ■ IRSRepConference.com/criminal-tax-day-2021/

Phone: (203) 654-7064
One Audubon St, 3rd Floor ■ New Haven, CT 06511 ■ United States

GREEN & SKLARZ LLC

Connecticut. The full roster of speakers is here: <https://irsrepconference.com/criminal-tax-day-speakers/>

Conference participants can earn 8 hours CPE/IRS CE or 7 hours CLE. The conference early bird fee is $95 through May 21, 2021 and goes up to $149 for late registration after May 31, 2021. Online registration is open for Criminal Tax Day with more information about the event here: <https://irsrepconference.com/criminal-tax-day-2021/>

Criminal Tax Day 2021 is organized by the Green & Sklarz Foundation Trust, a 501(c)(3) organization which was formed to support charitable work in the greater New Haven, CT area. The Foundation supports work with other charitable organizations to support local charitable institutions and low-income taxpayer clinics. All profits of Criminal Tax Day 2021 are donated to our local Low Income Taxpayer Clinics and other New Haven based charities. In addition, the event is sponsored by ten law firms, Quinnipiac University Law School, and Tax Rep Network. All sponsors are listed here: <https://irsrepconference.com/criminal-tax-day-sponsors/>